Ramaytush Ohlone Acknowledgement

The Historic Preservation Commission acknowledges that we are on the unceded ancestral homeland of the Ramaytush Ohlone, who are the original inhabitants of the San Francisco Peninsula. As the indigenous stewards of this land and in accordance with their traditions, the Ramaytush Ohlone have never ceded, lost, nor forgotten their responsibilities as the caretakers of this place, as well as for all peoples who reside in their traditional territory. As guests, we recognize that we benefit from living and working on their traditional homeland. We wish to pay our respects by acknowledging the Ancestors, Elders, and Relatives of the Ramaytush Ohlone community and by affirming their sovereign rights as First Peoples.

E. REGULAR CALENDAR

5. 2022-004422DES (P. LAVALLEY: (628) 652-7372)
MOTHER'S BUILDING (1 ZOO ROAD, SAN FRANCISCO ZOO) – southeast of Sloat Boulevard and Great Highway, within San Francisco Zoo, portion of Assessor's Parcel Block 7281, Lot 006 (Districts 4 and 7). Consideration to Recommend to the Board of Supervisors Landmark Designation of the Mother's Building as an individual Article 10 Landmark pursuant to Section 1004.2 of the Planning Code. Initiation of landmark designation of the Mother's Building was introduced by Supervisor Melgar and adopted by the Board of Supervisors on April 12, 2022 (See BoS File No. 220275). The Mother's Building, constructed in 1925 for Herbert and Mortimer Fleishhacker to honor their late mother, was donated to the City and dedicated to serve as a resting place for mothers and young children. During the Works Progress Administration (WPA) era of the 1930's, the Public Works of Art Project (PWAP) and Federal Art Project (FAP), New Deal programs designed to employ artists and fund visual art in the United States, selected Bay Area artists Helen K. Forbes and Dorothy Puccinelli, who painted murals at interior, and Helen Bruton (assisted by her sisters, Margaret and Esther Bruton), who installed tile mosaics at exterior. The Mother's Building is culturally and historically significant for its association with women's history, specifically, as one of the only recreation sites of the period focused on the comfort of mothers and their young children, and as the only large-scale WPA art project created solely by women. The building, which showcases the work of several of the region's finest female artists, is significant for association with these artists and their artworks, and for association with the history of the Works Project Administration's Federal Art Project. Further, as one of the few buildings remaining from recreational improvements made along the City's coastline during the 1920s and 1930s, the Mother's Building, which exemplified new patterns of recreation, is significant for its association with early recreational facilities in San Francisco. Lastly, the Mother's Building is architecturally significant as an excellent example of Italian Renaissance Revival architecture designed by architect of merit George W. Kelham. The subject property is in a P (Public) Zoning District, an OS Height and Bulk District, and the Sunset Chinese Cultural District. The Planning Department has found that this action is exempt from the California Environmental Quality Act and the Historic Preservation Commission will rely on that determination to make its decision.
Preliminary Recommendation: Adopt a Recommendation for Approval
