Ramaytush Ohlone Acknowledgement

The Historic Preservation Commission acknowledges that we are on the unceded ancestral homeland of the Ramaytush Ohlone, who are the original inhabitants of the San Francisco Peninsula. As the indigenous stewards of this land and in accordance with their traditions, the Ramaytush Ohlone have never ceded, lost, nor forgotten their responsibilities as the caretakers of this place, as well as for all peoples who reside in their traditional territory. As guests, we recognize that we benefit from living and working on their traditional homeland. We wish to pay our respects by acknowledging the Ancestors, Elders, and Relatives of the Ramaytush Ohlone community and by affirming their sovereign rights as First Peoples.

PARKSIDE BRANCH LIBRARY (WITHIN MCCOPPIN SQUARE PARK, 1200 TARAVAL STREET) – northwest corner of 22nd Avenue and Taraval Street; a portion of Lot 001 in Assessor's Parcel Block No. 2351 (District 4). Consideration to Recommend to the Board of Supervisors Landmark Designation of Parkside Branch Library, a branch library of the San Francisco library system, situated within McCoppin Square Park, at 1200 Taraval Street, as an individual Article 10 Landmark pursuant to Section 1004.2 of the Planning Code. Parkside Branch Library was initiated for designation by former Supervisor Mar on October 25, 2022, and adopted by the Board of Supervisors on December 13, 2022 (See BOS File No. 221110). Parkside Branch Library was built in 1951 by architectural firm Appleton & Wolfard, one of eight branch libraries constructed between 1951 and 1966, during a focused building campaign by the City and County of San Francisco. Parkside Branch Library is historically significant for association with the social and cultural shifts in post-war American library programming and design and reflects principles of the modern public library promoted by the American Library Association after World War II. Parkside Branch Library is also architecturally significant: it embodies the principles of mid-twentieth century American public library design; it displays a signature style developed by Appleton & Wolfard for this mid-century branch library building campaign; and is representative of the work of Appleton & Wolfard, an architectural firm of merit. 1200 Taraval Street is located within a P (Public) Zoning District and OS Height and Bulk District. The Planning Department found that this project is exempt from the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA). If the Historic Preservation Commission Recommends approval of the landmark designation to the Board of Supervisors, it will rely on that CEQA determination to make its decision.
Preliminary Recommendation: Recommend Landmark Designation to the Board of Supervisors
