PROJECT BACKGROUND

Initial Reports Reviewed

- Community Input: Do not start from scratch.
 - Identified Project Topics with community by reviewing existing reports to understand community priorities, needs, and past efforts.
 - Ensured that the beginning planning process builds on work already identified by community members.
 - Provides important context to help guide next steps in the planning process.
 - Additional reports and supporting materials are in review as we prepare for upcoming community workshops.
- Affordable Housing Funding and Strategies
 - HRC Food Access in Fillmore & Japantown Report
 - African American Reparations Advisory Committee Final Report
 - African American Citywide Historic Context Statement
 - Investment of Funds to Support the Black Community in San Francisco Report
 - Racial & Social Equity Plan: Phase I
 - Community Health Needs Assessment (CHNA) 2022 Report

PROJECT CHAMPIONS

Building Shared Leadership: Project Champions

Champion Role:

- Serve as thought partners, facilitators, and ongoing stewards of specific topic areas throughout the planning process.
- Help direct workshop content & priorities.
- Meet with city staff/consultants to refine content and share out with broader steering committee.
- Option to co-facilitate small group discussions during workshop and/or co-facilitate during steering committee meetings.

Please add a dot to the topic area that you would like to Champion from the following:

- Health
- Housing
- Placemaking & Culture
- Economic & Workforce Development
- Healing
- Education

Open Discussion

Question for Discussion

- We heard your request to hear from those that have worked on community action plans and learn about their experience.
 - Are you open to meeting virtually with community leaders and city staff who lead the Tenderloin Community Action Plan (TCAP) and Mission Action Plan 2030 (MAP2030) work?
