The in-person and virtual forums will have identical content.

Join District 3 Supervisor Danny Sauter and San Francisco Planning staff for a community forum about potential individual landmark designations in District 3. San Francisco Planning staff will discuss the landmark designation process, associated preservation incentives and responsibilities, and opportunities for public participation.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND? Property owners/residents of the addresses listed below, and any interested member of the public.

Individual Landmarks are unique and irreplaceable assets, serving to enhance and protect many of the physical surroundings in which past generations lived. Currently 19 properties are being considered as Individual Article 10 Landmarks due to their architectural, cultural, and/or historical significance.
