

Haight near Ashbury circa 1967

People in front of The Print Mint at 1538
Haight Street and Be-Jay's Baby Shop.

Photo: Unknown (OpenSFHistory / wnp28.1268)

Join this event to learn about the history of your neighborhood and share your stories about important people, places, businesses, and events. At this event, SF Planning will provide information about recently identified historic places in the Haight-Ashbury, Lower Haight, and Divisadero Neighborhood Commercial Districts. Community input will help SF Planning consider important neighborhood places and inform historic and cultural preservation efforts.

Everyone is welcome! This event is free and no prior knowledge of history or preservation is required. Optional: Bring favorite Haight Ashbury ephemera or photo to share.

Light refreshments will be provided!

The San Francisco Cultural Resources Survey (SF Survey) is a multi-year program by the Planning Department to identify and document places and resources of cultural, historical, and architectural importance to San Francisco's diverse communities.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 22nd
6:00 - 7:30 PM

SAN FRANCISCO PUBLIC LIBRARY
PARK BRANCH

1833 Page Street, T: (415) 355-5656

About the program

Short presentation by SF Planning, followed by Q&A, and time to provide input on recently identified historic places.

For more information and accessibility requests, including language interpretation or translation, contact:
cpc.survey@sfgov.org

San Francisco
Planning

SF CULTURAL RESOURCES
SURVEY

