

The San Francisco Public Library presents
San Francisco Civic Center:
Past, Present and Future

Wednesday, June 19, 6:00 p.m.

The San Francisco Planning Department has been working on a new public realm plan for the Civic Center and has recently presented a final draft for public comment.

Panel discussion addressing what is a Civic Center, how the

San Francisco Civic Center came about and where it's heading in the future.

Join Jim Haas, Civic Center advocate and author of The San Francisco Civic Center: A History of the Design, Controversies, and Realization of a City Beautiful Masterpiece;

Nicholas Perry, project manager for the Plan at the SF Planning Department; and

Willett Moss, landscape architect and Plan consultant as they discuss their draft and how it relates to the original plans, while accommodating 21st century needs.

Copies of Mr. Haas' book will be available for purchase and signing.

San Francisco Public Library

Supported by Friends of the San Francisco Public Library

All programs at the Library are free

SFPL Main Library - 100 Larkin St. - Latino/Hispanic Room